EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 25-30.

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not teach or fairly suggest (taken in combination with the other claimed features) a gap separating the movable MEMS element from the at least one conductive element defines a variable-sized dimension extending substantially parallel to the substrate (Claims 1-10, 14-24); wherein the gap define a variable-sized dimension extending substantially parallel to the substrate (claims 31-37); wherein the at least one electrical trace is disposed within an electrically insulating interface between the at least one conductive MEMS element and the substrate (claims 38-40); wherein each trace is disposed within an electrically insulating interface between the substrate and the stationary conductive elements (claims 41-46); wherein the at least one electrical trace is disposed within an electrically insulating interface between the at least one conductive MEMS element and the substrate (claims 47-51); wherein the gap defines a variable size dimension extending substantially parallel to the substrate (claims 52-61, 63-73); a variable-size gap defines a dimension having a size that changes in repose to movement of the movable MEMS element, wherein the dimension extends substantially
